The Department of Applied Economics V of the University of the Basque Country UPV/EHU and the Cambridge Centre for Economic and Public Policy, Department of Land Economy, of the University of Cambridge, are organizing the 14th International Conference Developments in Economic Theory and Policy. The Conference will be held in Bilbao (Spain), the days 29th and 30th of June 2017.

Although papers on all areas of economics are welcome, there will be a Special Session with Invited Speakers on the topics of “Economic Policies Since the Global Financial Crisis”. Besides this Special Session, there will be two Keynote Speakers, one of them being Professor Stephany Griffith-Jones (University of Columbia and University of Sussex).

Suggestions for Organized Sessions are also welcome. An Organized Session is one session constructed in its entirety by a Session Organizer and submitted to the conference organizers as a complete package. A proposal of an Organized Session must include the following information:

- Title of the session, name and affiliation of the session organizer, name and affiliation of the person who will chair the session (if different than the organizer).
- Titles of the papers (3-4 papers), name, affiliation and contact information of the authors.

Besides Plenary, Organized and Normal Parallel sessions, there will also be Graduate Student Sessions where students making a MSc or a PhD programme can present their research. Participants in the Graduate Student Sessions will pay a lower conference fee.

At the conference, there will also be parallel sessions of Presentation of New Books. In this kind of sessions, authors will be able to introduce recently published books. Moreover, papers and sessions about innovative practices in the teaching of economics are also welcome

The deadline to submit proposal of papers and sessions is 26th May 2017.

The Journal Panoeconomicus (<http://www.panoeconomicus.rs>) will publish a special issue with a selection of papers presented at the conference. The selection of the papers will be made by the Scientific Committee of the Conference. The final decision about the papers to be published will be subject to a process of anonymous evaluation.
